

A grayscale photograph of a school desk. On the desk, there is a notebook with a spiral binding, a ruler, and a pen. The desk is light-colored wood, and a chair is visible in the background. The text "Schools should thrive – not just survive" is overlaid in white, bold, sans-serif font. There are white L-shaped corner brackets in the top-left and bottom-right corners of the image.

Schools should thrive
– not just survive

PUBLIC SCHOOLS

This election... don't forget about education.

As your locally elected school board, we will urge government to invest in education and establish a funding formula that is predictable and sustainable.

Education is important to our future. As an employer and local economic partner we want to ensure our rural communities are strong and viable into the future.
